

Programme Name	Outline	Who Should Attend?	Date & Location	Cost*
5 Day International Event Administration programme	The world of sport is becoming increasingly professional. Sport executives are facing many new challenges as their organisations become more performance driven. The 5 Day International Event Administration programme has been designed to equip those executives at the forefront of sport and major event management with the necessary insights and tools to take their organisation to the next level, particularly in relation to event strategy and operations.	The programme is typically suitable for senior executives in the sport and major event sector including those from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Regional, state, national or international sporting organisations; • IFNA member federations; • Professional sporting entities; • Government and support agencies; • Bidding organisations; • Tourism agencies and event corporations; • Organising committees; • Event and festival organisers; • Consultants and suppliers to the sectors; and • Sponsors and rights holders 	Manchester 12th – 16th October 2009 12th-16th April 2010	€3,950
3 Day Executive Administration and Risk Management programme	The Executive Administration & Risk Management programme addresses the core strategic and operational areas faced by the management team and equips sport administrators with fundamental administrative and management perspectives to assist them in the day to day work inside their federation, department, club, or sector organisation. This programme provides a rare forum for discussion with like minded individuals along with industry and academic experts.	Participants represent both paid and unpaid administrators and office bearers from the sector including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chief Executives and Senior Management of Federations; • National/International Netball organisations; • Board Director's of Netball organisations; • Volunteers with important management or decision making functions; • Managers within major sporting organisations; and • Consultants and suppliers to the sector 	Manchester 2nd-4th December 2009 Dubai 2nd-4th March 2010 Hong Kong 29th-31st March 2010	€2,600
3 Day Athlete Performance Pathways programme	The Athlete Performance Pathways Programme has been created specifically to provide Performance Directors and managers with the tools and techniques for managing high performance pathways and athlete support effectively. The programme provides intensive industry training, ensuring executives and managers can develop strategic management techniques specific to; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Talent identification; • Development; and • Presentation. 	The programme is typically suitable for Performance Directors and managers with a demonstrated management background in high performance management including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • High performance directors • Athlete support service suppliers • Regional, state, national or international Netball organisations; • Professional sporting entities; • Community and voluntary groups; • Government and support agencies; and • Consultants and suppliers to the sector; 	Manchester 26th – 28th May 2010 Dubai 15th-17th June 2010 Singapore 14th-16th July 2010	€2,600

* Please note that programme costs are inclusive of accommodation, breakfast and lunches, and all programme reading materials. Dinner is provided on the nights of organised group activities.